Toxic Cabin Air Exposure

Identify:

- Is the source ground ops?
- Air vents?

Report to Flight Deck:

- Location of odor & intensity
- Description of the odors smell and appearance.
- Passenger complaints/symptoms
- Complete any necessary reporting documentation as required by your airline.

Symptoms:

- Headaches
- Disorientation
- Dizziness
- Nausea
- Burning of eyes/nose/throat
- Blurring of vision

If you exhibit the above or ANY other symptoms seek medical attention immediately

For More Information Visit:
http://www.twu.org/health-safety/toxic-fume-exposure/
Seek Medical Attention:

- An arterial blood gas test should be performed as soon as possible.
- Keep a copy of all records/documentation.
- Take photos of any visible symptoms (ie rashes)
- Keep a record of symptoms in a journal as new symptoms may develop over the following weeks.
- If you need additional information for your doctor visit the link below.

Report:

- Report the event along with your injury/illness in accordance with your airlines specific OJI reporting process.
- Complete a safety event report as required by your airline.
- Submit all Toxic Fume Event Reports via the website below.

For More Information Visit:
http://www.twu.org/health-safety/toxic-fume-exposure/